The first system of the musical score features three staves. The top staff is for woodwinds, with a 'Pijpers' (pipers) part. The middle staff is for percussion, with parts for 'Tamb.' (tambourine) and 'Pic.' (piccolo). The bottom staff is for the bass line. The music is in a 3/4 time signature and includes various rhythmic patterns and dynamics.

The second system continues the musical composition with similar instrumentation and rhythmic complexity. It features melodic lines in the woodwinds and bass, supported by the percussion.

The third system shows further development of the musical themes. The woodwinds and bass parts have more intricate rhythmic figures, while the percussion maintains a steady accompaniment.

The fourth system includes first and second endings, marked with '1.' and '2.'. The notation is dense with many notes and rests, indicating a complex rhythmic structure.
