The first system of the musical score consists of four staves. The top staff is a treble clef with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). It contains a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes. The second staff is an alto clef with a key signature of two flats, containing a similar melodic line. The third staff is a tenor clef with a key signature of two flats, containing a bass line. The bottom staff is a bass clef with a key signature of two flats, containing a bass line. The system concludes with a double bar line.

The second system of the musical score consists of four staves, continuing the composition from the first system. It features the same four-staff layout (treble, alto, tenor, and bass clefs) and key signature. The melodic lines in the upper staves show more complex rhythmic patterns, including sixteenth-note runs. The system concludes with a double bar line.

The third system of the musical score consists of four staves. It includes a trill (tr) marking above the first measure of the top staff. The system concludes with a double bar line. The notation continues with various rhythmic values and rests.
