Koper

The first system of the musical score consists of three staves. The top staff is for woodwinds (Hout Bugels + 8va), the middle staff is for brass (Koper), and the bottom staff is for the bass line. The music is in 2/4 time and G major. The woodwind part has a melodic line with some rests, while the brass part plays a rhythmic pattern of eighth notes. The bass line provides a steady accompaniment with a consistent eighth-note pattern.

The second system continues the musical score with the same three staves. The woodwind part is mostly silent, while the brass and bass parts continue their respective parts. The brass part features some sustained notes and rhythmic patterns, and the bass line maintains its eighth-note accompaniment.

Bar. Tuba Trb.

The third system introduces a fourth staff for Baritone, Tuba, and Trumpet (Bar. Tuba Trb.). The woodwind and brass parts from the previous systems continue. The new part for Bar. Tuba Trb. has a melodic line with some rests, and the bass line continues its accompaniment.

The fourth system concludes the musical score with the same four staves. The woodwind and brass parts continue their parts, and the bass line maintains its accompaniment. The system ends with a final chord and a rest for the woodwinds.
