

WOOD COUNTY CELEBRATION

By John O'Reilly

Wood County Celebration is an exciting, vibrant composition by one of America's most performed composers of band music. There are three distinct moods represented in this composition. The first is characterized by biting, repeated chords and active percussion. Following this introduction the trumpets present a dramatic melody that is further developed by flutes and clarinets. The third section features a playful flute melody accompanied by syncopated clarinets and low woodwinds. This idea is extended by the full band leading to the return of the introductory material and the exciting conclusion.
