PROGRAM NOTES

EPISODE FOR BAND is designed for those directors in search of serious band compositions which are also within the modest abilities of less experienced performers. Despite its technical ease, this work requires interpretive sensitivity and precise execution, basic challenges in the performance of musical literature at any and all levels of difficulty.

This number is A-B-A in form, the central four-note motif being represented in the C minor context of the A sections. The B section is an embellishment on the same theme in a contrapuntal setting, grounded rhythmically with a percussive march beat. The work is brought to a climax in the final measures, the theme sounding in the lower voices and topped off with a refreshing C major chord.
