Teach Me, Lord, to Wait – The blending of two scripture-based worship choruses offers a message of reassurance and hope to those who put their trust in the Lord. Enhanced with optional clarinet, scored by Stan Pethel, the accompaniment provides a supportive tapestry for the moderately easy choral parts. Suitable for general worship services or special emphasis services such as baccalaureate, graduation, or mission confirmation. Suggested scriptures include Psalm 91 and Isaiah 40:31.

Mary McDonald is a well-known composer of more than 700 choral anthems and many keyboard collections. Her unique blend of heart, hands, and humor, combined with a wide range of writing and performing styles, has kept her in constant demand for the past 30 years as a composer, keyboard artist, and choral clinician. She is a life long resident of Knoxville, Tennessee, where she resides with her husband. They are parents of two adult children and two grandchildren.
