N. B. All the exercises are to be sung, at first, on various vowels (a, o, e), and, later, on the syllables written under them. Do not observe, at first, the directions given for shading, but execute each exercise in a quiet, smooth piano, and as legato as possible. The tempo to be employed depends on the needs and the ability of the singer. At every rest, and at the breathing-marks (+), breath must be taken; it may also be taken (if necessary) at the commas (').
