The first system of music consists of two staves. The treble staff contains a series of eighth-note chords and rests, while the bass staff features a rhythmic accompaniment with eighth notes and rests. Dynamic markings include pp and p.

The second system continues the piece. The treble staff has eighth-note patterns, and the bass staff provides a steady accompaniment with chords. A fermata is placed over a note in the treble staff.

The third system features a treble staff with a circled 'F' above it, indicating a first ending. The bass staff continues with chordal accompaniment. A fermata is also present over a note in the treble staff.

The fourth system shows the treble staff with chords and the bass staff with a similar accompaniment. The notation includes various chord symbols and rests.

The fifth system includes a treble staff with notes and a bass staff with chords. The word "Animes" is written above the treble staff. A fermata is placed over a note in the treble staff.
